

December 8, 2023

Dear Sibdou,

Welcome to Lynn. You're in! We believe in your boundless potential and are delighted to offer you admission to Lynn University for the August 2024 semester. We are also pleased to invest in your future by providing you with a merit scholarship of $22,000 for the academic year. Congratulations, you've earned it.

We believe that you will make a positive impact within our community of innovators, leaders and restless early adopters. Education demands bold, persistent experimentation, and as a Lynn student, you'll be part of a whole new style of teaching and learning that will engage you and weave your career goals, talents and passions together in meaningful ways.

You have an exciting journey ahead of you. Our students come from everywhere and believe they can do anything - and we think you'll fit right in, Sibdou. Alongside fellow Fighting Knights from around the world, you will have remarkable opportunities to exchange ideas, challenge your limits and put your values into action.

To ensure you are part of the August 2024 class, please submit the reply form on your status page, along with your deposit.

Once again, congratulations on your admission to Lynn University.

Yours sincerely,

Gareth P. Fowles, Ed.D.
Vice President for Enrollment and University Advancement